24 October 1962

Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

STAT
On behalf of the Staff and Faculty of the U. S. Army Intelligence School, it is a pleasure to express my appreciation for the effective period of instruction presented at Fort Holabird on 15 October 1962 by [redacted] to personnel attending the current Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course.

STAT
[redacted] afforded the class an excellent understanding of the history of U. S. intelligence operations as well as the current system of U. S. strategic intelligence. The foreign officers were most complimentary of [redacted] manner of presentation and the period of instruction materially enhanced U. S. interests with this group.

STAT
Thank you for making this presentation possible and please convey to [redacted] my sincere appreciation.

Sincerely,

Lawrence C. Brown
